Reviews

92 points – Rob Geddes MW An unusual blend but it makes sense as both have ripe berry fruits and soft tannins. Pale dry rose colour with a delicate watermelon pink. Youthful estery aromas of fermentation gives pears and bubble gum.

92 points – Sam Kim, Wine Orbit It is charming and immediately appealing on the nose showing watermelon, nectarine, grapefruit and blossom aromas, followed by a juicy palate that is bright and lingering. Pristine and vibrant with plenty of refreshing flavours.

90 points – Leo Daly, Wine Matrix This beauty has a lovely floral nose with strawberry dominating. A rosé made in the classic dry style with supple sweetness that surprises with lingering nectarines and pear on the palate. Velvety soft tannins offer some grip on the finish, all up a mealy treat. Seriously good Rosé (Division ONE) that ticks all the boxes. Enjoy chilled - now !!

90 points – Stephen Read, Wine Matrix The nose has subtle aromas of floral tones, along with strawberry and hints of red fruits, soft but complex. Pale salmon pink in colour, clear and bright. Soft and supple in the mouth with a good acid balance. Leading to hints of spice on the front, ripe strawberry fruit, but still dry. The mouthfeel is very very textural leading to a tight finish. Enjoy now served chilled.
